Bonds, Warranties and Indemnities

In association with the East and West Midlands Regions of the Electrical Contractors Association (ECA) and The Midland Construction Broker Group¹, ECIC would like to invite you to:

Bonds, Warranties and Indemnities,
A Breakfast Seminar with Professor Rudi Klein, Barrister

Date: Friday 8 April 2016

Venue: The Manor Hotel, Meriden, West Midlands CV7 7NH

Timings: 7.30am – 9.45am

The seminar will review the rise in 'on-demand' and 'performance bonds' together with third party warranties and indemnities. With details on what they are and the implications for the contractor in terms of cash flow and tender price. The seminar will also evaluate the consequences and liabilities they can present.

Rudi will be dealing with the complex law relating to bonds, warranties and indemnities. He will look at the potential pitfalls or loopholes and will share with you advice and signposts on what to avoid and how best minimise the risks to your business.

Professor Rudi Klein

Professor Rudi Klein, (CEO of Specialist Engineering Contractors' (SEC) Group) is an influential voice in the Contracting Industry. A Barrister, specialising in construction law, Rudi will provide an insight to the current demand, trends and developments in the use of bonds, warranties and indemnities.

Places are limited so please R.S.V.P. to claire.banks@ecinsurance.co.uk as soon as possible.
